

“THE BULLET PROOF MIND”

Sponsored by: Southern Michigan Criminal Justice Training Consortium and Jackson Community College

Location: Jackson Community College, Potter Center in the Boughman Theatre.

February 17, 2010

Guest Speaker:

Pulitzer nominated author and lecturer Lt. Col. Dave Grossman will speak on the difficulties and challenges facing teachers and law enforcement confronting school violence.

Lt. Colonel Dave Grossman is one of the world's leading experts on interpersonal aggression and violence. He was a West Point psychology professor and an Army ranger. His books include the Pulitzer nominee, "On Killing: The Psychological Cost of Learning to Kill in War and Society" and "Stop Teaching Our Kids to Kill: A Call to Action Against TV, Movies, and Video Game Violence." Colonel Grossman was a trainer of health professionals, police, and first responders immediately after the shootings in Jonesboro, Arkansas; Springfield, Oregon; and Littleton, Colorado. He has also presented his findings to over 20 colleges and universities in North America and Europe; was invited to present to the annual conventions of the American Medical Association, the American Psychiatric Association, and the American Psychological Association, and was called as an expert witness and consultant in the Timothy McVeigh, Oklahoma City bombing and Paducah School shooting cases.
